God's Reminder in the Storm

Some days at the TV station it feels like everything that can go wrong, does go wrong. One thing breaks, then another, and before long it really starts to weigh on me. On one of those days, I was especially discouraged. I found myself missing my dad, David Aiken, because he always knew how to steady things and fix problems quickly.

On my drive home, I started praying: talking to Jesus about the problems at the station and how much I missed my parents. The rain was heavy, and my heart felt just as heavy. Then the clouds began to lift, and a huge rainbow stretched across the sky. It was right over the cemetery where my Mom and Dad are buried. I quickly grabbed my camera and captured this picture.

In that moment, God reminded me of His promises. He is always faithful, even when I feel overwhelmed. Just like He did with Noah, He still paints His promise in the sky to remind us that hope follows the storm.

A New Opportunity for LPTV Stations

It has been 15 years since the FCC last opened a filing window for new Low Power Television (LPTV) stations. Broadcasters across the country have been waiting, and now the wait is almost over. Beginning January 21, 2026, applications will once again be accepted for new LPTV and TV translator stations.

This matters because LPTV stations give ministries like ours the ability to bring Christian television into new towns and communities, places full power stations may never reach. The last opportunity to apply feels like a lifetime ago, and in the years since, God has opened many new doors for ministry.

At COACB, we are preparing to apply for several new stations when the window opens. For us, it's not about frequencies and filings. It's about people. Each of our stations is dedicated to being a soul winning voice for Christ, reaching homes with the message of salvation, hope, and encouragement, lifting people up and pointing them toward Jesus.

We don't want to make these decisions alone. If you know of a community that could benefit from adding a local Christian TV station, we would love to hear from you. Your prayers and insight will help guide us as we seek the Lord's direction.

When the window opens in 2026, we want to be ready. Just as God has blessed our work in Marion, Delaware, Columbus, and Ashland, we believe He will continue to open doors for Christian broadcasting in new places so that more lives can be touched and more people can get to know Christ.
