VOLUNTEER TRIBUTE

Without volunteers there could be no COACB. In fact, that up until 1997 there were no paid employees at the COACB. Can you imagine operating two television stations with no paid staff? Yes, the COACB did that through the use of its volunteers. Even today the COACB operates three television stations, four production facilities, and an internet site with just four employees and one hundred volunteers. The COACB depends on its volunteers to provide the extra labor required for its operation. Thank you volunteers without you the COACB would not exist!!!

STORIES FROM MY RELATIVES

John Hoffman

My Uncle Ghizz, his last name was Moe. He lived close to the Mexican Border in Lower California. A lady, just across the border had identical twins. She couldn't properly care for them so she put them up for adoption. After much consideration, Uncle Ghizz and his wife took them. One was named "Juan" and the other one, "Amall". It became too much for Uncle Ghizz and his wife to care for both of them. Fortunately, they had friends in Alaska who adopted Amall.
