WRITTEN BY GOD

Carolyn Aiken

At 10:55 p.m. one uneventful Saturday evening, God paid a special visit to my home. I was told to write this song and in five minutes I had penned the song and the melody. What was so strange about this whole spiritual experience is that the subject and words were not really about a subject that I knew. This is God's song and that's why I'm sharing it with you.. The song is entitled "Marie." Here are the words:

Marie

I live in an unchristian world,
but I believe in Jesus anyway.
I feel Him all around me and I pray night and day,
My friends say they'll be taking me away.

(chorus)

Marie, they're coming to take you away,
Marie, they're coming to take you away.
Voices in the bushes where you kneel to pray,
Marie, they're coming to take you away.

I have a small Bible kept under lock and key,
The children here daily study with me.
I teach them of Jesus and how to pray,
Now I hear they're coming to take me away.

(chorus)

Headlines in the news read no Christians will stay,
Searching of the houses by night and by day.
They said "Marie, are you a Christian?"
I said, "to Jesus I pray"
Now it's true that I'll be going away.

Yes, I'm going, going away.
Dear Jesus with you to stay.
Now Dear Father forgive them I pray,
For they're taking me, taking me away.
They've taken Marie away,
Yes they've taken Marie away.

SALMON APPETIZER

THELMA AIKEN

One 15 ounce can salmon or 2 cups cooked salmon (flaked); One 8 ounce package of creamed cheese, softened; 4 tablespoons mild or medium salsa; 2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley; 1 teaspoon dried Cilantro; 1/4 teaspoon ground Cumin (optional); 8 flour Tortillas (8 inch)

Drain salmon. Remove any bones. In a small bowl combine salmon, creamed cheese, salsa, parsley, and Cilantro. Add Cumin, if desired. Spread about 2 tablespoons of the salmon mixture over each tortilla. Roll each tortilla up tightly and wrap individually with plastic wrap. Refrigerate for 2 or 3 hours. Slice each tortilla into bite sized pieces. Yield 48 appetizers.

MOM'S MEATLOAF

CAROLYN AIKEN

2 eggs; 3/4 cup milk; 2/3 cup finely crushed saltines; 1/2 cup chopped onions; 1 tsp salt; Dash pepper; 1 1/2 lb lean ground beef; 1 cup ketchup; 1/2 cup packed brown sugar

In large bowl beat eggs. Add milk, saltines, onion, salt and pepper. Add beef and mix well. Shape into an 8 1/2" x 4 1/2" loaf in an ungreased shallow pan. Combine remaining ingredients. Spread 3/4 ketchup and brown sugar mix over meat loaf. Bake at 350° for 60 - 65 minutes until no pink remains. Let stand 10 minutes then slice and serve with remaining sauce.

TACO SOUP

NANCY WILSON

1 pound hamburger; 1 small onion, chopped; 1 package taco seasoning mix; 2 cans chili beans; 1 or 2 cans hominy, or can corn may be used; 1 can stewed tomatoes; 1 can Rotel; 1 small can green chilies; 1 package Hidden Valley ranch dressing mix.

Brown meat and onion together and drain. Put all ingredients in a large stew pan, DO NOT DRAIN ANY OF THE CANS. Heat until good and hot. It depends on how spicy the Rotel is on how spicy the soup will be. Sometimes I just use 1/2 can of Rotel. Good served with grated cheese on each serving and cornbread.

CRACKER SNACKS

ANONYMOUS

3 packages crackers (unsalted square); 1 1/4 cup Canola Oil; 1 package dry Ranch Dressing; 1-gallon Zip Lock Bag.

In Zip Lock Bag put your Canola Oil and dry Ranch Dressing and mix until blended. Add your crackers and shake until well coated. Store in a fresh Zip Lock Bag.

STORIES FROM MY RELATIVES

John Hoffman

My Grandpa Toone, Spit was his first name, drove a stagecoach but it didn't have any wheels on it. What held it up? He replied, "Bandits."

WORKS FOLLOWING HER

Although Golda Belle Seiter passed away ten years ago, her works continue to follow her and she continues to help her COACB television station. Before her death, she left instructions in her will, that the COACB was to receive a donation from her estate. That money was forwarded to our organization and was used to buy new equipment and help further the Gospel of Jesus Christ through the use of television. We are very thankful that Golda thought enough of the COACB to make arrangements for us even after her passing. After ten years we still use some of that equipment and her works continue.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, SHOP WELCOMES NEW FACES

Every Friday night at 8:30pm, we have a program that some are calling the best thing going in Marion county. The program we are speaking of is "Lights, Camera... SHOP!". During this program we sell a wide assortment of items. We sell everything from baseball hats for $3, energy efficient lightbulbs for $1 each, big jar candles for $4, and many more bargains. Remember on every purchase the "tax is on us", so if you buy an item for $3 you won't be leaving here paying $3.21. Because of the popularity of this program we are welcoming our 500th customer, Gary Lyons Jr. of Marion, Ohio. So, if you haven't watched us on Fridays before, tune in and see what Gary and all the others are talking about.

"We're so busy watching out for what's just ahead of us that we don't take time to enjoy where we are."
