Labor Day

PLACE FOR THE DEAD

In Marion there is a room that the women of our organization, don't admit exists. It is dirty, messy, contains old equipment and sub-assemblies. The women think of it as David's Junk Room, a Place of Dead Equipment, or simply The Crypt. Some have stated that it should all be thrown away but last month we learned just how valuable this room really is.

There was a severe cloud burst in Kenton that dropped 7" of rain in one storm. Although the transmitter is on high ground, a flood of water ran through the transmitter building destroying the transmitter and several other pieces of equipment. After seeing how high the flood waters had risen, a decision was made to take all the equipment back to Marion. The equipment was then left to set and dry for three days before trying to determine what could be salvaged.

A call to our insurance company revealed that the insurance does not cover flood damage and a replacement transmitter was over $6,000.

After the equipment was dried out, it was determined that the power supplies and modulator were not salvageable. Paul Walters, Greg Stephens, Leo Gilliam, Jonathan Aiken, and David Aiken started to disassemble the damaged equipment. They salvaged what they could then go to the Junk Room to search for possible parts and assemblies to rebuild the transmitter.

I know that all our readers have heard of the organ donor program where parts of dead people are used for the living, Well we have an equipment organ donor program. Three dead transmitters gave up organs so that the one for Kenton could go on Making Waves for Christ.

STORIES FROM MY RELATIVES

The Late John Hoffman

You would like my Nephew, Alphonse. He was four years old. One day he went over to the next door neighbor, Mrs. Smith. He walked into the kitchen and got her attention. "Mts Smiiff," he said, Momma say you have some new rugs. May I pwease see therm?" Mrs Smith looked down at him and smiled. "Of course, Alphonse. I'm glad that little boys like nice thing." She took him by the hand and led him into the front room where the new carpet was. Alphonse just looked and looked. He even got down on his hands and knees. He stood up and looked quizzically at Mrs. Smith. "Well," she finally asked.. "What do you think of my carpet?" Alphonse thought for a moment and then said, "I don't know about my mother." Mrs. Smith was intrigued by his answer. "What do you mean you don't know about your mother?" In all innocence, Alphonse replied. "Well, Mrs. Smiiff, that rug doesn't make me sick."
